CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

REVISED MAY 22, 1895.

PREAMBLE.

The Military Surgeons of the United States, in order to promote and improve the science of Military Surgery, have associated themselves together and adopted the following Constitution and By-Laws:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The organization shall be known as "The Association of Military Surgeons of the United States."

ARTICLE II.

Members.

SECTION 1. There shall be Active, Associate, Honorary, Corresponding, and Life Members.

ACTIVE MEMBERS.

SEC. 2. Commissioned medical officers of the United States Army, of the Navy, and of the National Guard, or Volunteer Militia of the several States are eligible for active membership. Active members may retain their membership should they be honorably discharged from the service in which they were commissioned. Active members only shall be eligible for office or entitled to vote.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS.

SEC. 3. Ex-medical officers and other officers of either of the above-mentioned services, and of the Marine Hospital Service, and ex-medical officers of the United States Volunteer Service are eligible for associate membership.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

SEC. 4. Persons who are not qualified for active membership, but who have achieved distinction in the military service, are eligible as honorary members.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

SEC. 5. Military surgeons living outside of the United States, who are prominent in the literature of military medicine and hygiene, are eligible as corresponding members.

LIFE MEMBERS.

SEC. 6. On payment of the sum of Fifty Dollars any active member may become a life member and be exempt from further dues.

ARTICLE III.

Officers and Committees.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The officer shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Editor, who shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

COMMITTEES.

SEC. 2. There shall be the following standing committees: An Executive Committee, to consist of the officers and ex-presidents and five (5) members. A Publication Committee, to consist of three (3) members. A Literary Committee, to consist of three (3) members of the National Guard or Militia, and one (1) each from the Army and Navy. A Nominating Committee, based upon a representative, or one vote, for each State, Territory, the Army, and the Navy, and for every additional ten (10) members or major fraction thereof, an extra representative or vote; said vote or votes to be cast by a member or members present from each State, Territory, Army, and Navy, to be designated by the members present from each State, Territory, Army, and Navy at the time of the meeting.

ARTICLE IV.

Quorum.

Thirty-five (35) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

11

ARTICLE V.

Amendments.

All amendments to this Constitution and By-Laws shall be proposed in writing at one annual meeting, and voted on at the next. A three-fourths vote of all the members present at the annual meeting shall be necessary for adoption.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

Election to Membership.

SEC. 1. Election to active or associate membership shall be by the Executive Committee, to whom the Secretary shall refer all applications, together with such credentials as may be presented.

SEC. 2. Election to honorary or corresponding membership shall be by two-thirds vote of the Association, after the unanimous recommendation of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II.

Loss of Membership.

Any member who may be dismissed from the service for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman shall be expelled and debarred from any further rights or privileges when proper proof has been furnished the Secretary.

ARTICLE III.

Meetings.

The Association shall meet annually, the time and place to be fixed at each meeting for the one ensuing. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time. At the annual meeting the President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and Editor shall be elected for the term of one year, the standing committees appointed, and the annual reports received.

ARTICLE IV.

Dues.

The dues to be paid by active and associate members shall be five dollars ($5.00), due at the time of election; thereafter on January 1 of each year, in advance. Delinquents in the payment of dues will not be entitled to the Proceedings or other publications of the Association.

Delinquency for two years shall terminate membership, after due notice by the Treasurer.

Honorary, Corresponding, and Life members shall be exempt from the payment of dues.

ARTICLE V.

Duties of Officers.

THE PRESIDENT.

SEC. 1. The President shall preside at all meetings, appoint all committees, unless otherwise provided for, approve all proper bills, and perform such other duties as are usually incumbent upon such an officer.

THE VICE-PRESIDENTS.

SEC. 2. The Vice-Presidents, in order of seniority, shall perform the duties of President in the absence or inability of that officer.

THE SECRETARY.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep the records and archives, issue certificates of membership to honorary and corresponding members on election, to active and associate members when notified by the Treasurer that the proper dues have been paid.

He shall present to the Committee on Publication a synopsis of the proceedings, and such papers as the authors desire to have published by the Association. He shall receive all applications for membership and refer the same to the Executive Committee. He shall notify the Treasurer of the election of active and associate members, and shall prepare an annual report. At each annual meeting he shall appoint an Assistant Secretary.

THE TREASURER.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys due the Association, collect all assessments, and pay all bills which have been properly approved. He shall have charge of all publications, and distribute the same to those who are entitled to them. He shall notify the Secretary when new active and associate members have paid and are entitled to certificates of membership.

The accounts of the Treasurer shall be audited by a committee appointed for that purpose on or before the annual meeting. He shall present an annual report.

He shall execute such bond of $2,000 as may be approved by the Executive Committee for the faithful performance of his duties; the Association to bear the cost of this insurance.

THE EDITOR.

SEC. 5. The Editor shall prepare for publication and see through the press all material furnished him by the Publication Committee. All contracts for printing must first have the approval of the President and Treasurer.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of Committees.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

SEC. 1. The Executive Committee shall perform the duties prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws, and such other administrative or executive duties as may be referred to it, and for which provision has not otherwise been made. The President shall be ex officio chairman.

THE PUBLICATION COMMITTEE.

SEC. 2. The Publication Committee shall determine what portions of the proceedings are of sufficient general interest to be printed.

It shall also decide on the advisability of publishing the various papers presented at the annual meeting, and forward all such material to the Editor, and all papers presented to and accepted by the Association shall be its property, and shall not be published in any other form, except by the authority of the Executive Committee, and shall be credited to the Association.

THE LITERARY COMMITTEE.

SEC. 3. The Literary Committee shall outline the literary work for the annual meeting in advance, making the necessary arrangements for the reading and discussion of papers.

THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

SEC. 4. The Nominating Committee shall, at the annual meeting, present a list of candidates for the various officers for the ensuing year.

The vote, or votes, of the Nominating Committee shall be cast by a member, or members, who shall be designated by the members present, from each State or Territory, the Army, and the Navy.

Register of Members.

REVISED TO OCTOBER 15, 1897.

NOTE.—The figures preceding each name in the Register of Members, indicate the year of election to membership.

The designations after the name, indicate (first) the grade of Military and Naval precedence, (second) the Corps Title, and (third) the service, State or National, in which commissioned. In the case of Naval Officers the grades are in brackets, indicating what is termed their "relative rank"; they are addressed officially by their corps titles, but in social intercourse it is customary in the Navy to address them simply as "Doctor." The following table exhibits the correspondence of grades and titles in the Army and Navy:

ARMY.		NAVY.
GRADES.	TITLES.	GRADES.	TITLES.
Brig. General.	Surg. General.	Commodore.	Surg. General. Med. Dir. (ret'd.)
Colonel.	Asst. Surg. General.	Captain.	Med. Director.
Lt. Colonel.	Dep. Surg. General.	Commander.	Med. Inspector.
Major.	Surgeon.	Lt. Commander.	Surgeon.
Captain.	Asst. Surg. (after passing.)	Lieutenant.	Surgeon.
1st Lieut.	Asst. Surgeon.	Lt. j(unior)g(rade.)	Pd. Asst. Surg.
		Ensign.	Asst. Surgeon.

In addressing communications to military officers both the grade and title are used; in addressing naval officers, the latter only is employed, e. g.:

Major A  B  C  , Surgeon F  G  H  , U. S. N.,
 Surgeon, U. S. Army, U. S. S. I *** ,
 Fort D  , Ariz. Naples, Italy.
